PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Hi All!

Hi everyone!

It’s hard to believe that when you read this, the summer will be coming to a close! Right now it’s so hot I can’t imagine snow!! But of course, the Fall always brings new beginnings for us and we have much to do in the coming months!

I’m hoping to see many of you at services for the High Holy Days and the celebrations of Sukkot and Simchat Torah! This is an especially fun time of year for families, and I love to see our CBJ kids taking part!

The Fall is such a good time to renew your commitment to Judaism and to our Temple. I know that synagogue, services, Beit Sefer and educational events may not be the top priority on your to do list, but I’m hoping that the Days of Awe will inspire you to remember how important it is to keep the spirit of Judaism and Congregation Beth Jacob alive here in Plymouth! It has been my goal as President these last three years, and will continue to be so! I hope you will help me achieve it for all of us!!

Wishing all of you a happy and healthy New Year! I look forward to seeing and working with you all this coming year!!!

Best,

Marjorie
Rabbi’s Message

A MESSAGE FROM RABBI SILVERMAN

In anticipation of Rosh Ha-Shanah, Rabbi Nachman of Bratzlav (18th-19th Century) used to say: "To me, the main holiday is Rosh Ha-Shanah. As soon as Rosh Ha-Shanah is over, I listen to hear if there is knocking at the doors, and if the people are rousing themselves to turn to prayers of repentance for the New Year. For in no time at all, the whole year passes by in the twinkling of an eye!” And now, this special season is coming to meet us again. Some of us, perhaps many of us, aren’t so sure about "rousing themselves to turn to prayers of repentance." We may know we have thought about what was important for us to do for our families, for the world, for ourselves. We know we have done some good things! And we know we have let some things go because we just didn’t have the time or, perhaps, the energy. Let’s take another look at our possibilities. Here, to give you something to think about in anticipation of the High Holidays are my potential sermon topics for the High Holiday services:

Rosh Ha-Shanah, 1st Evening Service — “Seeking/Offering Forgiveness: Part One”
Rosh Ha-Shanah, 1st Morning — “Israel Comes of Age”
Rosh Ha-Shanah, 2nd Evening — “Reflecting on My Ancient Ancestors”
Rosh Ha-Shanah, 2nd Morning — “We Who Say We Believe and We Who Don’t”
Yom Kippur, Kol Nidray — “Seeking/Offering Forgiveness: Part Two”
Yom Kippur, Morning — “Jerusalem of Gold and a Rainbow of Colors”
Yizkor — “We Remember Them”
Yom Kippur, Afternoon — “Getting Off on the Right Foot”
N’eclah (Yom Kippur, Concluding Service) — “It All Comes Down to This”

 Please remember to join us for Tashlich following this service

Meredith joins me in wishing our wonderful Beth Jacob community a happy, healthy, productive New Year, a New Year of joy in abundant measure. Shalom! — Rabbi Lawrence Silverman

CBJ Adult Ed - Tikun 'Olam brought to Plymouth a speaker who taught us about the Yazidi community. Who are the Yazidi? They are a persecuted tribe in Iraq, non-Muslim, with some roots going back over 7000 years, give or take.

Commemorating the Fourth Anniversary of the Yazidi Genocide

August 3, 2018, marks the fourth anniversary of the genocide perpetrated by the so-called Islamic State (IS) against the Yazidi minority in Iraq and Syria.

In the summer of 2014, IS (Da’esh) launched a systematic attack against civilians in Syria and northern Iraq. On August 3, that campaign reached Sinjar, which was home to the majority of the world’s Yazidis, an ethno-religious minority with centuries of heritage throughout the Middle East.

In the weeks that followed, IS captured an estimated 6,800 Yazidis (mostly women and children) and subjected thousands of them to prolonged sexual and physical abuse. It is estimated that over 3,000 Yazidis were killed as a result of executions or forced displacement. IS also forced Yazidis to convert to Islam, and separated younger boys from their families, sending them to be brainwashed to become child soldiers. The Genocide also targeted Yazidi cultural heritage, with some of the most important religious and cultural sites being destroyed by IS. By laying booby traps in the homes of Yazidis, IS has prevented Yazidis from returning to their homeland even long after the so-called “Caliphate” has been largely defeated in Iraq.

The United Nations, the European Parliament, the Council of Europe, Canada, the United States of America, France, Armenia, Australia, Scotland and the United Kingdom, have all recognized that the crimes committed by IS against the Yazidis amount to genocide. However, even now, four years after the genocide began, Yazda is unaware of any comprehensive efforts to investigate.
International human rights lawyer, Amal Clooney, Counsel for Yazda, observed today that “Four years ago today ISIS started its campaign to wipe out a group of people known as Yazidis from this earth. They failed; but not before they killed over 3000 Yazidis and enslaved almost 7000 women and children, with thousands still in captivity today. Although many powerful states have recognized that this was genocide, they have with few exceptions refused to either put the perpetrators on trial or give the victims safe refuge. The victims want and deserve justice. I am grateful that the UN Security Council has heeded our call to set up an investigation of ISIS’ crimes in Iraq and hope that the work of the UN team, led by Karim Khan QC, will soon lead to the prosecution of ISIS members for genocide in fair and transparent trials around the world.”

Nadia Murad, survivor of IS and UNODC Goodwill Ambassador, stated that “Four years ago, I was one of thousands of Yazidi women kidnapped by ISIS and sold into slavery. Although since then we have received sympathy and solidarity from all over the world, the Yazidis need more to be able to move on and start rebuilding their lives. What we need is concrete action by states, including expertise in criminal investigations and prosecutions and contributions of funds”.

In its second report on mass graves, Yazda calls upon the Iraqi Central Government, the Kurdistan Regional Government, and international actors to:

- Resolve without delay the issue of dual local administration in Sinjar in coordination with the Yazidi community;
- Restore and maintain security in Sinjar by increasing the size of local security forces;
- Ensure smooth access to Sinjar by non-governmental organizations, humanitarian organizations, and other actors seeking to provide aid, medicine, livelihood support, or reconstruction efforts in Sinjar, by also reopening roads between Duhok and Sinjar;
- Accelerate reconstruction efforts in Sinjar, by including Yazidi representatives (and importantly, Yazidi women) in decision-making processes;
- Urgently ensure the provision of basic services to Sinjar, including electricity, water, healthcare, and education;
- Take necessary steps to hold accountable those responsible for the crimes committed against Yazidis, including locals who joined IS in committing these crimes, while pursuing a discourse that openly acknowledges the nature of the Yazidi Genocide;
- Enact legislation defining war crimes, crimes against humanity, and genocide;
- Protect, preserve and exhume mass graves in Sinjar to allow families of victims to bury their loved ones properly, and achieve closure;
- Cooperate on investigations of crimes against Yazidis;
- Once retributive justice is served, design reconciliation programs in consultation with the Yazidi community and thoroughly implement these in Sinjar to ensure peaceful cohabitation between different groups.

Saad Babir, Media Director at media.director@yazda.org or info@yazda.org

NOTE to Editors: The Yazidis are an ethnic and religious minority with a 6,000 year-old culture, based mainly in northern parts of Syria and Iraq, with migrant communities in Europe and North America, Russia Armenia and Georgia. Yazda is a non-profit organization, established to support the Yazidi internationally and in their homeland in northern Iraq and northeastern Syria. Yazda’s mission is to support the Yazidi community in the aftermath of the August 2014 genocide, while 400,000 people remain displaced in Sinjar, the Nineveh Plains, and Syria. International human rights lawyer, Amal Clooney, Yazda’s legal counsel, represents a number of Yazidi women who are survivors of IS, including Nadia Murad, United Nations Goodwill Ambassador for the Dignity of Survivors of Human Trafficking.

CARD PROGRAM!

Haven’t gotten on the band wagon yet with the CBJ gift card program? Why not? It’s easy and convenient and it doesn’t cost you a dime to earn rebates that go directly to CBJ. And now, trying it out just got even better!

*Matching rebate applies to first-time gift card customers only.

For a limited time, all first-time gift card orders* will have their rebates MATCHED by the Rabbi’s Mitzvah Fund! What more could you ask for? Once you try it and realize how easy it is to earn money for CBJ, we think you’ll be hooked!

Here’s how it works…just place a new customer order with Carl Finer (cjfiner@gmail.com) or 508-224-1942 and the Rabbi’s Mitzvah fund will donate a matching gift to CBJ equal to the amount that you earned with your gift card purchase. For example, if you purchase $100 in Stop & Shop gift cards, you earn $xx in a rebate directly to CBJ, and the Rabbi’s Mitzvah Fund will donate an additional $xx to CBJ. How cool is that?!

But wait…these cards aren’t just for groceries! There are hundreds of other retailer cards that you can purchase. Like CVS, Dunkin’ Donuts, Target, and Home Depot. And who doesn’t like to go out to eat? You can dine out and raise money for CBJ by ordering gift cards for Panera, Chili’s, TGI Friday’s, and Olive Garden.

"May the Memory of each one abide as a Blessing"

The master list of yahrzeits can be found on the CBJ website at www.cbjplymouth.org/memorials.html

Some customs associated with Yahrzeit observance are: lighting a memorial candle at home in the evening at the beginning of the Yahrzeit period; saying Kaddish during a Shabbat service close to the Yahrzeit; donating to a charity or one of CBJ's special funds in memory of the one whose Yahrzeit is being observed.
